Boat Description

Marguerite is a beautifully maintained 52' narrowboat, built in 1986 by the respected builder Mike Heywood. A timeless example of traditional narrowboat design from this era, she has been cherished by the current family and enjoyed on many memorable holiday journeys along the Kennet & Avon Canal.

Interior & Layout

Stepping aboard via the generously sized rear deck, you descend into the stern bedroom, which features a comfortable double bed, double wardrobe, and ample under-bed storage – ideal for extended stays aboard.

Next is the bathroom, complete with a hip-style bath and overhead shower, creating a relaxing space to freshen up after a day's cruising.

The galley is well-appointed with tiled work surfaces, a classic hob, under-counter sink, and a 12V Waeco fridge to keep your essentials cool – and your bubbles chilled! Storage is well thought out, with cupboards for pots and pans and an overhead unit perfect for mugs and glasses.

The saloon is warm and inviting, with a comfortable sofa and chairs, a dining table ideal for family meals or a friendly game of Scrabble. This space provides a cosy retreat on cooler evenings and is perfect for entertaining.

Finally, the spacious front welldeck is the perfect spot to unwind with a sunset gin and tonic, offering a peaceful place to enjoy the canalside views.

Finish & Ambience

Marguerite's interior showcases a rich dark wood finish below the gunwales and on the ceiling, beautifully contrasted with light-coloured panelling above the gunwales. This combination enhances the sense of space and light, creating a traditional yet airy atmosphere throughout
